

Slate of Nominations for FY2020 Board of Directors

Returning Board Members (in alphabetical order)

Constance Battle (4th term) is a retired developmental pediatrician and former CEO of the Hospital for Sick Children, a 130-bed transitional hospital for children with severe disabilities in northeast Washington, DC. She is also a former Trustee and retired professor from George Washington University, where she taught Pediatrics and Public Health. Dr. Battle completed her medical degree at George Washington University and is the parent of a daughter with cerebral palsy. She lives in Potomac, MD.

Clifton Clay (4th term) is an IT professional specializing in enterprise architecture, systems engineering, operating systems environment development and implementation, and technical program management. Mr. Clay holds Master's degrees in Systems Engineering and Engineering Management from The George Washington University. He has a sister with disabilities and has taken an integral role in ensuring that she has appropriate supports to lead a full life. He lives in Alexandria, VA.

Raymond Davidson (3rd term) is a Fortune 500 leader with experience in various industry sectors. He currently serves as Chief Operating Officer for American Public Human Services Association and has also served as a member of the Board of Advisors for George Washington University Business School. Mr. Davidson holds a Master of Business Administration from George Washington University. He currently lives in Silver Spring, MD and has served previously as Board Secretary.

Philip Golrick (2nd term) has more than twenty years of professional experience with expertise in electronic surveillance, intelligence oversight and compliance, information access, export controls, and other national security issues developed in a wide range of legal, operational, and policy settings. He currently serves as Counsel to the U.S. Courts. Mr. Golrick holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Virginia. He lives in Annapolis, MD.

John Gould (3rd term) is a retired federal government employee, having invested over 30 years in service at the Department of Commerce and Department of the Navy. He is a founding member and former officer of STAND Together, The Arc Montgomery County's self-advocacy group, and is also active with People On The Go, a statewide advocacy group. He has served on many committees for The Arc, including the the public policy committee. An active community volunteer, Mr. Gould lives in Aspen Hill, MD.

Stephanie Katz (6th term) has more than 30 years of experience in the design, implementation and administration of human resources and employee benefit programs. As President of CETA Benefit Consulting Group, LLC, she has supported a variety of firms including AARP and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Ms. Katz holds a Master of Business Administration from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. She lives in Silver Spring, MD and is currently served as Board Vice President.

Karen O'Connor (6th term) is self-employed as a licensed Residential Architect. Since the birth of her daughter, Ms. O'Connor has been actively involved with The Arc and Down Syndrome Network of Montgomery County. She also donated her professional time and skills to consult on and design the renovation of a group home for The Arc. Ms. O'Connor holds a Master of Architecture from the University of Colorado, Denver. She lives in Germantown, MD and previously served as Board President.

Aileen O'Hare (3rd term) has worked for the US Department of Agriculture for almost 25 years in the Beltsville, MD location. She has previously served on the Board of Directors for both The Arc Maryland and The Arc Montgomery County. She has received several awards for her volunteer and advocacy work at both the state and local levels. Ms. O'Hare holds an undergraduate degree from University of Maryland University College. She lives in Montgomery Village, MD.

Additional nominations on second page

FY 2020 Slate of Nominations for Board of Directors

Returning Board Members (in alphabetical order; continued from first page)

John Olenick (4th term) is currently the Business Development Director for PSA Insurance and Financial Services. As both a strategic partner and client of PSA for over 15 years, he specializes in market share growth and strategy. He began his career path in public accounting at a Big Eight accounting firm, spent time working with real estate developers, and built two Accounting and Finance staffing firms. Mr. Olenick holds an undergraduate degree in accounting from the University of Maryland. He lives in Laurel, MD.

Mark Rittenberg (4th term) is a founding partner at AMR Commercial, LLC, a Bethesda based commercial real estate brokerage company. Established in 1994, AMR provides mainly Landlord and Tenant advisory services. AMR professionals have represented the interests of government contractors, not-for-profits, professional firms and Fortune 500 companies throughout the Washington DC Metropolitan area. Mr. Rittenberg is a lifelong Montgomery County resident and lives in Bethesda, MD.

Michael Tadesse (2nd term) is an entrepreneur and a business development consultant by training. He is the founder of HappyPlate, a start-up company which provides people with long-term illness food meeting their dietary restrictions. Previously, he was an Account Manager for Market Development at KPMG headquarters in New York City, Sales Director of Americas for MergerMarket in New York City, and an Account Administrator of Finance & Strategy Sales for Corporate Executive Board in Rosslyn, VA. He lives in Silver Spring, MD.

NEW Board Members (in alphabetical order)

Kathy Ghiladi is a partner with Feldesman + Tucker + Leifer+ Fidell in Washington, DC. Her active litigation practice spans the areas of health law, federal grants law and government contracts, and corporate law. In the area of health law, her practice focuses on government-sponsored health care programs such as Medicaid, CHIP, Medicare and the Affordable Care Act. Ms. Ghiladi holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Maryland School of Law. She lives in Potomac, MD.

Benjamin Lopez graduated in 2017 from the Maryland School for the Blind. He currently receives support services from The Arc Montgomery County, and participated in the Transitioning Youth Retail Project. As a person with multiple disabilities, he is excited about contributing his skills and talents to benefit the community. Mr. Lopez lives in Potomac, MD.

Bart Stringham recently retired as Senior Vice President and Corporate Counsel with the National Association of Broadcasters in Washington, DC. He has previously volunteered with The Arc Montgomery County in several capacities, and his brother receives support services from the agency. He also served on the National Association of Broadcasters Leadership Foundation board. Mr. Stringham holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Baltimore. He lives in Bethesda, MD.

Slate of Board Officers

Stephanie Katz for President
(2nd term as President; formerly Vice President, Secretary)

Raymond Davidson for Vice President
(1st term as Vice President; formerly Secretary)

Mark Rittenberg for Treasurer (2nd term as Treasurer)

Philip Golrick for Secretary (1st term)

Karen O'Connor for Past President (non-elected position)

Elections

The final Slate of Nominations will be voted upon at the membership meeting scheduled for Wednesday, June 26, 2019. Voting will be restricted to current members of The Arc Montgomery County.