THE ARC MONTGOMERY COUNTY ANNOUNCES THE ONBOARDING OF NEW CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Rockville, MD – The Arc Montgomery County is thrilled to announce the onboarding of its new Chief Development Officer, Antoine Holman. He brings decades of experience in both the corporate and nonprofit sectors, including leadership roles with the NAACP and the American Red Cross. His proven record in expanding donor networks, strengthening partnerships, and driving major fundraising growth will support The Arc’s continued progress and long-term sustainability.

Mr. Holman built a strong career in sales, honing valuable skills in business strategy development, market presence expansion, and organizational performance improvement, consistently driving double-digit growth. Seeking to channel those strengths into meaningful community impact, he transitioned to the nonprofit sector, where he has since led high performing teams and secured transformational support for mission driven organizations.

“I am honored to join The Arc Montgomery County and support an organization with such a powerful legacy of advocacy and opportunity for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. I look forward to building strong partnerships that expand our impact and ensure more people and families have the support they need to thrive.” Mr. Holman says.

This combination of vision, experience, and commitment is exactly what The Arc Montgomery County was seeking in its next Chief Development Officer.

“I’m delighted to welcome Antoine Holman as our new Chief Development Officer. His commitment to advocating for others, along with his track record of relationship building and expanding philanthropic support, makes him an outstanding addition to our leadership team. As we enter our next phase of growth, Antoine will play a pivotal role in broadening our impact and strengthening our work to build a more inclusive Montgomery County,” said Daria Cervantes, CEO.
